

SAUSAG

Agenda SAUSAG 61

12th May 2011
Federal Golf Club
Red Hill Lookout Road

4:00pm	Registration & Networking
4.15pm	Introduction and Welcome from the Chairperson - Doug Lean – call for additional committee members
4:20pm	Using Batch processes to enhance productivity in SAS/Enterprise Miner Batch processes in SAS/Enterprise Miner allow scripting of tasks, including insertion of datasources and cloning of diagrams. These will be demonstrated along with extraction of results from EM models, a process simplified by model cloning. - Ray Lindsay, Australian Taxation Office
4:40pm	Where is NEW Wally? NEW Wally, an international traveller has been granted a brand new visa or coming from a new born country, is due to arrive in Australia at any time from now. How could SAS find NEW Wally? - Alex Ma, Department of Immigration & Citizenship
5:00pm	Break
5:25pm	Introduction to SAS DI Studio Introduction to SAS Data Integration Studio – plus an exploration of some of the new features. - Jim Watson, SAS Institute Australia
6:00pm	Prize Draw & Close

Visit us on the web at <http://sausag.sasusers.net/>

Location of Golf Club Federal Golf Club is conveniently located from the main centre of Canberra and 15 minutes from the Parliament House. Heading out of the city, take Melbourne Avenue and then Gowrie Drive. Follow this down and you will see signs to the golf club.